

Grotefeld Hoffmann

Press Release

January 1, 2015 – Grotefeld Hoffmann is pleased to announce the appointment of Joshua J. Whiteside to partner. Mr. Whiteside works in the firm’s Chicago, Illinois office. His practice is currently focused on products liability litigation, general civil litigation and subrogation litigation. Mr. Whiteside has extensive experience in a wide range of complex litigation, including successfully defending clients against claims involving products liability, construction defects, and commercial litigation. Additionally, Mr. Whiteside has obtained favorable settlements and judgments representing insurers and their insureds in large loss subrogation matters.

Mr. Whiteside is licensed to practice law in the State of Illinois, United States District Courts in Illinois and North Dakota and United States Courts of Appeals for the Seventh and Eighth Circuits. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1998 and his Juris Doctor degree from Washington University, St. Louis School of Law in 2001.