

Grotefeld Hoffmann

Press Release

January 1, 2018 – Grotefeld Hoffmann is pleased to announce the elevation of Michael Scola to partner. Mr. Scola works in the firm’s Geneva, Illinois office. He currently focuses his practice in the areas of products liability, construction defect, and general civil litigation on behalf of subrogating carriers. In addition, Mr. Scola contributes to the firm’s general liability defense practice. He has extensive experience representing clients in all aspects of the litigation process, including initial loss intake, pre-suit investigation, formal discovery, motion practice, arbitration, and trial. As a part of his practice, Mr. Scola has successfully consolidated, coordinated, and resolved hundreds of claims on behalf of insurance company clients, nationwide, against product manufacturers, through consolidated actions, Multi-District Litigation (MDL), and alternative dispute resolution.

Mr. Scola is licensed to practice law in both Illinois and Wisconsin, including admissions to several United States District Courts throughout Illinois and Wisconsin. Prior to joining Grotefeld Hoffmann, he attended Loyola University Chicago as the John F. Cuneo Scholar, and graduated summa cum laude in 2007. Mr. Scola earned his Juris Doctor from Marquette University Law School in 2010. Prior to his admission to the Illinois and Wisconsin Bars, Mr. Scola clerked for Judge Timothy M. Witkowiak in the Milwaukee County Circuit Court, Law Division, and for the Honorable Chief Justice Patience D. Roggensack of the Wisconsin Supreme Court.
