

Grotefeld Hoffmann

Press Release

January 1, 2020 – Grotefeld Hoffmann is pleased to announce the elevation of Jonathan Tofilon to partner. Mr. Tofilon focuses his practice on civil litigation, specifically within the areas of products liability, wrongful death, construction defect litigation, and catastrophic losses, as well as First Amendment litigation, contractual disputes, food recalls, and agricultural losses. Mr. Tofilon has successfully litigated and resolved hundreds of cases throughout the country from inception through trial and final appeal.

Mr. Tofilon has achieved a remarkable record of success in his litigation career, including numerous landmark victories and early resolutions of complex disputes. Recognized for his ability to simplify complexity with clear communication, Mr. Tofilon has substantial expertise in developing and communicating compelling legal arguments in class actions, mass-actions, consolidated actions, MDL litigation, and civil appeals throughout the United States. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Tofilon clerked for the Honorable Phillip G. Reinhard, U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois. Mr. Tofilon serves as the President of the Advisory Board of Directors for Administer Justice, a pro bono law firm serving the indigent in Kane and DuPage counties.
