

Grotefeld Hoffmann

Press Release

January 1, 2022 – Grotefeld Hoffmann is pleased to announce the elevation of Joel Radakovich to partner. Mr. Radakovich works in the firm’s Austin office. He focuses primarily on matters involving insurance subrogation, product liability, premises liability, and insurance defense. He has a multi-jurisdictional practice, litigating cases throughout the United States and has tried cases to verdict in both State and Federal courts situated in Iowa and Texas.

Mr. Radakovich also has substantial experience in the area of food law, with a focus on FDA and state regulation of product labeling. In addition, he handles a variety of intellectual property issues, including trademark filings and trade secret misappropriation actions.

Mr. Radakovich is licensed to practice law in the States of Illinois, Montana, and Texas. He is also admitted to the United States District Court for the Northern and Southern Districts of Illinois and the Northern District of Ohio. Mr. Radakovich earned her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Minors in History and Literature from Marquette University in 2007. He earned his Juris Doctor from The John Marshall Law School where he graduated Cum Laude in 2015.