

Grotefeld Hoffmann

Press Release

January 1, 2022 – Grotefeld Hoffmann is pleased to announce the elevation of Meghan Rodda to partner. Ms. Rodda works in the firm’s Minneapolis office. Her multi-jurisdictional practice focuses primarily on insurance litigation, representing several major national insurers in subrogation matters, specifically in the areas of tort, products liability, construction defects, fire and water losses, explosions, and workers compensation. Ms. Rodda’s practice also includes coverage disputes between insurers and policyholders, including extra-contractual claims.

Ms. Rodda is licensed to practice law in Minnesota and Wisconsin. She is also admitted to the United States District Court for the Districts of Minnesota, North Dakota, and Eastern and Western Districts of Wisconsin as well as the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit. Prior to joining Grotefeld Hoffmann, she attended Davidson College, earning her Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature in 2006. Ms. Rodda earned her Juris Doctor from Marquette University Law School in 2012, where she graduated Cum Laude and with a Certificate in Civil Litigation.
